

I would ask that you not weaken Indiana's do not call list by allowing the banking industry to contact me, just because I have their credit card or bank at their establishment. I am greatly opposed to anyone being able to freely call me just because I chose to do business with them. Allowing this to happen would basically say that the lists are worthless, because anywhere that I shop or visit could make the same argument.